MEMORANDUM FOR:

GENERAL HAIG

FROM:

JON HOWE

SUBJECT:

Precautions in Special Place

[ ] called to say that they are increasingly concerned about the security of the special meeting place and are considering finding another venue as soon as possible. One neighbor has apparently asked what is going on.

25X1

After the next meeting, they would like to chat briefly about additional security precautions that are needed. In the interim, they recommend the following steps:

-- HAK should arrive in something other than a large limousine, and the Secret Service should be unobtrusive (reportedly, the Secret Service have been leaping out of the car and stopping traffic and this creates substantial interest in the neighborhood).

-- They strongly recommend that HAK meet only after dusk.

-- They have re-emphasized the importance of arriving at the appointed time.
